

PITTSBURGH CLO GUILD SCHOLARSHIP

Constance T. Rockwell Scholarship Program

The Pittsburgh CLO, in partnership with the Pittsburgh CLO Guild and the Constance T. Rockwell Scholarship Program, is pleased to provide this information on the scholarship awarded at the 2012 CLO Gene Kelly Awards.

Eligibility

- Scholarships are limited to high school seniors who want to pursue a degree in theater arts.
- Student must have applied to an accredited college, university, or conservatory that offers a four-year program with a requisite audition prior to submitting an application.
- If a student receives a full scholarship from any other source, he or she will not be eligible for the Constance T. Rockwell Scholarship. However, those receiving a partial scholarship or scholarships are eligible.

Criteria for Determination of Semi-Finalists

- Applicants will be evaluated with regard to financial need, experience, and scholarship merit, as well as school and community involvement.
- All applicants will receive notification of their status after the committee has thoroughly reviewed all applications. Each semi-finalist will be interviewed by, and audition for, the scholarship committee.

Scholarship Value

- Constance T. Rockwell Performing Arts Scholarships are awarded in a minimum amount of $4,000.
- Scholarships must be applied towards tuition for the student's freshman year at an accredited college, university, or conservatory that offers a four-year program in theater or performing arts, e.g. dance, drama, music, voice, costume design, set design, lighting, or sound.

Applications will be available in February.
