

SETON HILL UNIVERSITY

THEATRE SCHOLARSHIP

The Seton Hill University Theatre Program, in conjunction with the Pittsburgh CLO, is offering high school students participating in the Gene Kelly Awards special opportunities to compete for our high-value merit-based scholarships in theatre.

Eligibility

- All senior-level students who participate in the Pittsburgh CLO's Gene Kelly Awards are eligible for consideration.
- Preference is given to candidates who possess a cumulative high school GPA of 3.2 or better and a minimum SAT of 1200, but anyone accepted by the University is eligible.
- Students must complete all relevant application requirements and be accepted to major in Theatre at Seton Hill University.
- Students are required to complete an on-campus audition or portfolio review, as well as an interview with the Theatre Program faculty.
- Students may choose to major in Music Theatre, Theatre Performance, Technical Theatre, Theatre/Business, Theatre Arts, or Dance to receive scholarship consideration.

Terms of Award

- The recipient must accept the scholarship within the time frame indicated on the offer letter.
- The recipient must enroll as a full-time student majoring in Theatre at Seton Hill University in the fall semester following the award of the scholarship.
- The scholarship is renewable for up to four years.
- Renewal of the award each semester is contingent on the recipient maintaining a 3.0 GPA, making satisfactory progress towards the degree, and auditioning for all mainstage shows and performing as cast.

Scholarship Value

- The most prestigious scholarship, the Division of Visual and Performing Arts "Seton Scholar" Award, is a full-tuition scholarship, currently valued at $29,000 per year. Students participating in the Gene Kelly Awards who meet other eligibility requirements detailed above will receive targeted consideration for this scholarship. The aggregate value of the Seton Scholar Award is over $100,000 over the four years of the award.
- Other merit-based theatre scholarships available to Gene Kelly Award participants will range from $2,000 to $10,000 per year, or $8,000 to $40,000 total over four years.
- All scholarships are credited against tuition in two equal installments, one for each semester of the academic year.
